Explanation of Statistics on Traffic Offenses

As the Vermont Traffic Ticket Center (hereinafter referred to as VTTC) began operation statewide during the quarter ending June 30, 1980, the reports pertaining to traffic offenses have changed since the previous statistical report. VTTC is a special unit of the Windsor District Court which was set up to process traffic tickets. The Traffic Ticket Center began processing traffic tickets issued in Windsor County during March. All traffic tickets issued May 1, 1980 or later were processed by the VTTC instead of by the various District Courts.

The VTTC receives and processes all traffic tickets unless they are contested. Those tickets for which the defendant requests a trial or wishes to discuss the ticket with a judge (referred to as contested cases) are sent from VTTC to the District Court in the county in which the ticket was issued. The local District Court then sets the hearing requested and completes processing of the contested ticket.

This change in processing traffic tickets required changes in several of the statistical tables. The changes in each table are explained in the following.

Tables 1(b)-(f) in the quarterly report and Tables 1(b)-(d) in the annual report

The number of traffic offenses for the individual District Court Circuits has been dropped from these tables. As the traffic offenses were handled by the VTTC for part of the period covered, the figures are not comparable with the same period during the previous year. Therefore, the tables show the total by court without traffic offenses. The number of traffic offenses is shown at the bottom of the tables.

Tables 10 and 11

A line has been added to these reports for cases handled by the Vermont Traffic Ticket Center. The cases shown as disposed of by VTTC as contested cases are also counted as new cases added by the District Court to which the ticket was referred. Therefore, the number of cases added by the individual District Courts is the total of traffic tickets issued in their county prior to May 1, 1980 plus the number of contested cases referred to the court by VTTC.
